

Appalachian Memory Keepers

Author-in-Residence (AiR) Application

The Appalachian Memory Keepers (AMK) Author-in-Residence Program seeks to identify and promote both published/unpublished authors writing about Appalachian history and culture. If chosen, an Author will submit 13 original, previously unpublished articles (minimum of 200 words each) and at least 1 accompanying photo per article. This content will be featured on a weekly basis on the AMK website and social media channels. Authors chosen will be eligible for a $100 stipend.

Terms of Agreement: If chosen, each Author-in-Residence agrees to electronically submit 13 original stories during the quarter they are chosen. Each article is due a MINIMUM of 24 hours before the individual Author's scheduled day of publication. Program participants retain copyright of their work, but each grants AMK, without restriction, the right to edit and distribute any submitted articles via AMK social media channels, on AppalachianMemoryKeepers.org, and in printed/book form (without compensation). This contract can be terminated by Appalachian Memory Keepers at any time.

Submission: Please mail this application, along with 2 original writing samples (min 100 words each) to the following address: AMK, PO Box 34, Jefferson, NC 28640. Materials may also be submitted electronically by emailing to info@appalachianmemorykeepers.org.

Selection Process: All Applicants are evaluated and chosen by the AMK Board of Directors (BOD). BOD decisions are final. All applicants will be notified by mail/email.

Confirmation: All information included in this application is true, to the best of my knowledge. I am the sole author of this proposal and writing samples submitted for evaluation. If chosen, I understand and agree to the guidelines above.
